Christmas – A time to count our Blessings

Our small Island nation ranks highly on the list of wealthy nations in the world.

We have much to be grateful for, and have been blessed in very many ways. Although our society is far from perfect, and there remain imbalances and injustices that need to be radically addressed; by comparison with many places it seems that we are heading constantly in the right direction. We have known our days of oppression and deep seated conflict, but thankfully we are at a time in our history when ways of peace prevail, and dialogue is seen as the way forward. This is a dialogue based on mutual respect and recognition; to some large extent we have moved on from the ‘them and us’ mentality, and are prepared to see one another as equals. The journey continues, and we have a distance yet to travel.

Our society has been greatly enriched in recent years by the growing diversity of cultures and nationalities that now make their home in Ireland, and they bring with them so much that we can learn from. Indeed their contribution to the christian churches, of all traditions, is something that is bringing new vibrancy among us.

Christmas is a celebration of our God, the God who reaches out to us in the vulnerability of a new born child. His reaching out to us, is a reaching out in love, and he desires only that we know that and return that love. May Christmas 2023 be a time when his reaching out touches all of our hearts. May the blessings of Christmas be with you and yours.

Public Holidays

There are 10 public holidays in Ireland each year (increased from 9 in 2022). Public holidays may commemorate a special day or other event, for example, Saint Patrick's Day (17 March) or Christmas Day (25 December).

From 2023, there is a new annual public holiday in early February to mark St Brigid's Day. The public holiday is the first Monday in February, except where St Brigid's day (1 February) happens to fall on a Friday, in which case that Friday 1 February will be a public holiday.

On a public holiday, sometimes called a bank holiday, most businesses and schools close. Other services (for example, public transport) still operate but often have restricted schedules.

Upcoming public holidays: Christmas 2023
Christmas Day, Monday 25 December 2023
Saint Stephen's Day, Tuesday 26 December 2023
New Year's Day, Monday 1 January 2024

When a public holiday falls on a day which is not your 'normal working day', you are still entitled to benefit for that public holiday.

For example, you may get an extra day of annual leave, or an additional day's pay, or a paid day off within a month of the public holiday. However, you do not have any automatic legal entitlement to have the next working day off work. See 'Public holidays and your entitlements' on our website.

OÍCHE NOLLAIG

Don't blow the tall white candle out
But leave it burning bright
To show that they are welcome here

St Vincent De Paul Christmas Appeal Thank You

Happy New Year to all our loyal supporters.

Throughout 2023, you continued your financial support of our work through the parish website, to the sacristy or parish office, and to individual committee members. For this, we thank you all sincerely.

Reduced numbers at Masses didn't seem to lessen our Christmas appeal, as you all went out of your way to continue your support. The Annual Appeal realised €15,124 which is a wonderful contribution from parishioners within St. Mary's Parish. Because of this, we were able to make Christmas less stressful for many families in our area.

Sincere thanks to the Newsletter staff for their continuous coverage.

Thanks to Fr. Philip, Fr. Obaldo, sacristans Mary and Marie, and parish secretary Deirdre for their encouragement and extra help in taking in donations; special thanks to several of our local schools—principals, staff, parents and students, who ran fundraisers for us. Thanks to our loyal monthly collectors.

Thanks to various local organisations who also ran fundraisers for us during the year.

Go raibh míle maith agaibh go léir.

May you all have a happy, holy, peaceful Christmas and God's blessings throughout 2024.

St. Mary's Conference, Lucan.

Speaking of talent, well done to Billy who set up the crib outside St. Mary's once again!

Waiting for the Birthday Boy on Christmas Day!

More very blustery weather as we go to press on Thursday – hopefully Santa will get a tail-wind on Christmas Eve

Where's all the Holly? There seems to be a shortage of the traditional decoration this year – long gone are the days when there were a few trees around Lucan, and people could help themselves!

GOAL Mile Posters! We hear that poster put up last Saturday mainly at the N4-Newcastle Road junction were removed by the following Monday. Not much thought for those in need worldwide!

Bah Humbug!!!

James Gandon 1743 - 1823

This Christmas Eve 2023 will be the bi-centenary of renowned architect James Gandon's death. Famed for several Dublin buildings, including the Custom House, the Four Courts, King's Inn, and the portico of the House of Lords at College Green (now Bank of Ireland), his work was not always well-received by Dubliners, deeming the Palladian style not suitable for the times. Gandon's view was that these special buildings should be grand and stand out as being very important – all are popular landmarks today.

In 1805, Gandon purchased the Canonbrook estate on Esker Hill in Lucan, and following renovations, he took up residence in 1808. He also acquired the Pettycanon area of Lucan – ie the area between The Hollow on the Lock (Adamstown) Road, and Main Street, which is bordered by Primrose Lane to the west and to the east the border is roughly where the Esker Lawns/Lucan Heights estates are.

Although coming to the end of his career when he took came to Lucan, the architect's influences are to be seen in several local buildings including St. Andrew's Church which was designed by his pupil, Henry Aaron Baker. Dating back to 1823, the church is on a site donated by James Gandon in return for a leather-bound prayer book annually, and on condition that there would be no burial ground at the site.

The old Lucan Garda Station and Primrose Hill House have also seen some influences connected to Gandon.

Born in England, he was married and had family there, but spent most of his later life in Ireland. One of his sons, Captain James Gandon, an army physician, lived in Griffeen Lodge, just behind Courtney's Bar.

On his death in 1823, hundreds of Lucanians attested to his popularity when they walked to his funeral in Drumcondra where the great man was laid to rest on Christmas Eve. It would not be unreasonable to assume that James Gandon was a wealthy man when he died, but on the contrary, he was financially broke, and ended up sharing a grave with antiquarian Francis Grosse, in Drumcondra Churchyard.

James Gandon's portrait hangs in the National Gallery. Two artists were involved, Tilly Kettle who painted the head, but fled Dublin from his creditors, with the picture being finished by William Cuming.

An Post recently issued two stamps to commemorate the bi-centenary of James Gandon's death.

From his home in Canonbrook House, Gandon would have viewed Lucan's Main Street across the fields, with the farms of Westmanstown in the distance. One wonders what he would think of the view today! M.M.

SCHOOL NEWS

Lucan Community College

Important Dates

8th Jan: School reopens after the Christmas Break

18th Jan: 5th Year PT Meeting

22nd Jan - 3rd Feb: Mock Exams for 3rd & 6th Year Students.

Congratulations to 2023 LCA Students: We are delighted to announce that two students from last year's Leaving Certificate Applied class have achieved the highest credits (determined by the SEC) and will be presented with Fergal Quinn national awards in January. The students are Hannah Lynch and Dylan Harford. Both students are highly deserving of this as they applied themselves to the programme from the outset with the support and care of their teachers and SNA's in the classroom. Congratulations to both students.

Ty Charity Committee: Transition Year Charity Committee have gathered boxes for Team Hope. These will be delivered to the local representative of the charity ahead of Christmas. Thank you to all who contributed.

Work Placements: All our students were fortunate to get placements for the first session of Work Experience and many had glowing reports from employers. We are always so proud of the way our students represent the school and indeed themselves and their families with Work Experience. I would like to thank you all for your efforts to secure the placements and to extend my thanks to all employers.

The students engaged in a reflection session after session 1 and it was interesting to see the broad variety of placements that the students took part in and how they had learned from the experience. They had a new appreciation for the demands of working life and the efforts parents and guardians make on their behalf.

The next session is from the 22nd of January until February 2nd - students need to return their completed forms to me by the 15th of January. A reminder that Garda vetting is required in some work settings and needs to be applied for weeks in advance to ensure it is available for a particular date. Students need to be 16 before vetting can be applied for.

Some of our students were lucky enough to get placements at Microsoft for an extra week of Work Experience. To be fully insured and allowed to accept such positions, it is vital to ask for permission in advance and to provide an email with confirmation of such placements. Other students attended placements at The Defence Forces, An Gardai Siochana, Trocaire, Jigsaw's Walk in my Shoes, DCU, TCD and SAP Technologies.

Gaisce Awards: Five of our sixth year students took on the challenge of completing the Silver Gaisce Award last year. They dedicated a minimum of 1 hour per week for 26 weeks to each of the three challenge areas; personal skill, community involvement and physical recreation. They completed their adventure journey in Glendalough in February 2023. The awards were recently presented to students by Gaisce Development Officer, Ger Brady. Well done Cian, Niamh, Ruby, Milly and Millie! Congratulations on achieving the prestigious Silver Gaisce

Art Trip: On Thursday 14th

Junior Gaelic football: Hard luck to our junior Gaelic footballers who lost out in their quarter final on Friday morning to Dominican College. They had a great year with some big victories in the group stage of the competition. This is a very young team who we are hoping will be back next year.

'Girls Go Circular': The TY's enjoyed a workshop on Friday called 'Girls Go Circular'. This workshop was delivered by Junior achievement Ireland. It was a day the students really enjoyed where they learned how the global fashion industry can become more sustainable and be part of the circular economy which allows for products to be reused and recycled with benefits for the environment.

Carol singing in St James' Hospital: On Monday morning a group of students were accompanied by Ms. Keogh and Ms. Hanlon to St James' Hospital for carol singing. The group from St. Josephs visited ward 4 and helped to spread some Christmas cheer for the patients and staff

Opening of first phase of new building:

There is excitement in the school with the opening of the first phase of the new school building after Christmas. It has been a long wait for this day in St. Josephs but all staff and students are looking forward to the opening of the first phase which is to include two new science labs and a new home economics kitchen.

Coláiste Phádraig CBS

Soccer: Our u15 team have qualified for the Dublin West League quarter-finals after finishing in 2nd place in their group of four. The team had an anxious wait of a week or so before discovering the final group positions and they did just about enough with 4 points from their three group games to claim 2nd spot.

Our TY team defeated Kylemore College 1-0 on Monday in the 1st rnd of the TY Leinster Cup with Patrick Rance scoring the only goal of the game shortly before half-time with a precise finish from close range

Our 1st yr soccer team were narrowly beaten 3-2 by Hartstown CS last Wednesday in their 3rd group stage match of the Dublin Metropolitan League with Kaelan Cosgrove and Yassine Echaib scoring the Lucan goals.

Winter Fair: The Coláiste Phadraig Winter Fair was held in the canteen on Thursday 14th Dec and it proved to be a huge success with all stock completely sold out! The TY students decorated the canteen with Christmas decorations and then set up their own stands packed with an assortment of goods and wares for sale. There was a wide selection of tasty treats available to students and staff on the day from popcorn to cinnamon rolls, homemade cookies to multi-cultural meals! The Spice Fusion stall was a huge attraction on the day with students lining up for the delicious South Indian snacks, the home cooked Chicken Shawarma (a tasty Middle eastern dish) biryani, a mixed rice dish from Modern India, Samosa, a fried South Asian pastry with a savoury filling and freshly sliced onion bhaji on offer. The strong, spicy flavours and fresh, aromatic smells (as well as the low prices!) proved to be an irresistible combination for the students (customers!) at the Fair and the stall did a roaring trade throughout. The Music Club were also in attendance, entertaining the crowd with their festive renditions of Feliz Navidad and Last Christmas.

All of the students did a fantastic job presenting and selling their products using all the skills and tips they picked up in their Business classes. There was also some basketball, golf and soccer challenges with great spot prizes on offer. The raffles and guess the number of sweets in a jar competition were also very popular.

Wellbeing: Three 5th yr students; Abhinav Sriram, Aniruddh Sriram and Sam Jacob, have been very busy working on their project for this year's BT Young Scientist and Technology Exhibition which will take place in the RDS in January. The students have designed a project which will be showcased in the newest BTYSE category - Health and Well-being. They have been very active conducting surveys (a 'well-being check-in') across the year groups and they have developed a working algorithm which will allow them to convert various well-being indicators into a usable index. They have designed an App entitled Be – Well which will collect and display information for the index so we wish them well.

Dr. Ciara Mahon, a postdoctoral researcher at the Youth Mental Health Lab at UCD, visited the Transition Year classes this week to survey the students on completion of the Be Real Body Kind programme (as co-ordinated by Ms. Farrell). The Body Kind programme is a body image curriculum specifically designed for Irish secondary school students. The programme focuses on social media and gives students tested tools to help them with comparisons they make of themselves to the images they see in their social media feed.

Football: Our senior football team advanced to the Dublin League 1-4 finals after defeating Coláiste Choilm, Swords 3-14 to 2-09 last week in their preliminary round match. Conor Dillon (1-1), Michael O' Brien (1-1), Callum Morris (1-0), Luke McGovern (0-8) Reece Kelly (0-2) and Alex Leonard (0-1) got the Lucan scores and the team now face Gaelcholáiste Reachrann in the 1-4 finals in January.

Food collection: Tom Kelleher, from the Lucan Lions Club, came into the school on Monday afternoon to collect the food donations brought in by 1st yrs over the past three weeks. Ms. Casey would like to thank all those that contributed, both students and staff, so generously to the appeal while we would like to thank Ms. Casey for organising, promoting and co-ordinating the collection.

Christmas wishes: The staff and management of Coláiste Phádraig would like to wish a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all the staff and readers of the Lucan Newsletter. Hopefully 2024 brings joy and happiness to all in the surrounding communities. Nollaig Shona agus Athbliain faoi mhaise daoibh go léir.

Memories at Christmas Time

What will you remember when Christmas is done?

The eating the drinking the craic and the fun,
The joy in their eyes, shouting Santa's been here
'He's ate the mince pies and drank all the beer

Or will you remember the man on the paving
Begging for help to deal with his craving
You gave him some money and whispered so low
Happy Christmas dear friend, as tears started to flow

Or will you remember the Christmas staff party
With everyone looking so hail and so hearty

The buskers singing all over the town
Maybe you're watching the next Shane MacGowan

Or will you remember that call to your brother
It's been two lonely years since you talked to each other

It now doesn't matter who was wrong or was right

As you chatted together on Christmas Eve night

Christmas makes memories both happy and sad
We strive for the best Christmas we've ever had
The joy is in giving and reaching out to each other
Just like you did with that call to your brother

Even happy memories have a twinge of regret
Opportunity missed makes us worry and fret
Be kind to yourself, we all make mistakes
You're a wonderful person who's got what it takes.

A CHRISTMAS STORY

That Santa Claus is very old
Is something we have all been told.
Born over a thousand years ago
In Turkey, where there is no snow
All kinds of weather he'll endure
Children's happiness to secure.
Christened Nicholas, when very young
His parents died and he was brung
Up by monks. Skilful scanners
Of character, they taught him manners
And Christian virtues. He became
Bishop of Myra. He assumed the name
Santa Claus, his kindly acts
Preserved in legend; these are the facts.

Italian merchants brought Santa's bones
To a shrine in Bari. There were no phones
So three ships came with banners lying
With bands and heralds loudly crying
That here the Saint's remains would stay
And inviting people to cheer and pray.
A tale they told of destitute lord
Whose daughters, three, were never wooed
Because local men could not see how
Their dad could manage a decent dowry.

Rescued Daughter One from spinsterhood
And he threw in another for Daughter two.
The father wondered who would do
Such a generous deed. He boarded up
The Window. Late he supped
To catch the stranger off his guard.
But no fool Santa – clever he Climbed the roof and for Daughter Three Threw gold down the chimney chuckling 'Hee hee hee'. Coins filled the sock
Where it hung during – a lovely shock!

With money about the suitors tarried
And all three girls got happily married.
Santa had found the ideal way
To offer gifts. He decided to stay
On earth forever. Angels complained,
Saying, this mortal must be restrained,
But the Lord God said, It seems to us
To interfere would be ridiculous.
If we stop him now, children might
Make blasphemous protest in our sight.

So saints and angels bowed their heads
Leaving Santa with his elves and sleds
To roam the world and drop his toys
Down chimneys for little girls and boys
Reminding them that once they grew
They could be kind and generous too

St. Mary's Camera Soirée

Given the Christmas season pride of place this week must go to Joe's photograph of a robin given the bird's strong association with Christmas. The bird, which is relatively unafraid of people and is drawn to human activity, has taken a starring role on many Christmas cards since the mid-19th century. There are at least two legends around the robin's distinctive breast. According to one legend when Jesus was dying on the cross, the robin, then simply brown in colour, flew to his side and sang into his ear in order to comfort him in his pain. The blood from his wounds stained the robin's breast, and thereafter all robins carry the mark of Christ's blood upon them. An alternative legend has it that its breast was scorched fetching water for souls in Purgatory.

Paddy and Donal were in town taking some photographs of the Christmas lights on Grafton Street and of the illuminated façade of the Bank of Ireland on College Green.

Anna captured a very moody shot of winter sunlight through the branches.

While not strictly relevant to the activities of the Soirée, I think it appropriate to congratulate all involved in the Carol Concert in St. Mary's Church last Sunday afternoon. It was an afternoon of music of the highest quality. A number of people have enquired about the piano! It was a Steinway 6 ft. grand piano. Steinway is regarded as perhaps the best piano there is.

All that remains for me is to wish you all a peaceful Christmas and all the best for 2024. The Soirée will be back in action in the Parish Centre in January 2024.
