Following Shiny Lights! Are you following Trump!

Ignatian spirituality holds the image of light before us as a guide in decision making and prayer. St Ignatius was originally a soldier and had been in battles where it was important to hold and follow the standard of the battalion in order to ensure that one was in the right direction. The standard usually was flown on a shiny pole so that light and reflection would first beckon and then the colour of the flag as focus for the eye.

In Ignatian spirituality one becomes alert to the fact that light shines from both the friendly and the enemy camp so that we must look deeper and at the subtleties for greater certainty, security and purpose. It is usually tempting to following the light and things that are shiny; even supposedly if we are magpies!

Today's world shines many lights that draw us in many directions. I think that the greatest danger that we have in seeking the right light for ourselves and our community is that of rushing because we don't take time to discuss, consider and reflect. The quickest delivery of light filled ideas and things come through social media as quick flash lights. A quick flashlight just about provides us with direction for one step forward! If, instead, we stop and stand still for a while our eyes, senses, ideas will accommodate even to darkness and allow for a finding of a greater sure-foot!

Watching the inauguration of President Trump was shocking in its' demonstration of narcissism, capitalist power, condemnation of any difference or contrasting opinion, total casting aside of past leadership as a chain of connection and absolute delusion. The delusions of one person has many explanations whereas the delusions of that one with a large cohort of followers then becomes very destructive!

We can do nothing about the new era in the US, but we can watch our own consumption of information and check if the light that guides us is enduring and life-giving or simply flashing. We need to engage in broad and open discussion, take time to step apart and reflect and to have sure foundation and propose for all decisions and actions. As was posed at a recent input at the ecumenical gathering in St Mary's on Monday last, the questions of Who do we believe in and What do we believe in make a difference to how we live as individuals and as a universal people. We each have great power to do good or wrong. Let's choose our lights carefully and hold onto roots with deep meaning!

Were you off work due to the severe weather?

Your employment contract or statement of terms might include a set procedure for what happens if a severe weather event disrupts your work.

If it doesn't, the following applies:

If your workplace closes due to severe weather Your employer may lay you off if they cannot provide you with work temporarily.

If you are laid off, you may qualify for Jobseeker's Benefit or Jobseeker's Allowance depending on your situation.

If you are getting Working Family Payment, it may be affected if your working hours are reduced.

Employment rights when laid off

While laid off, you are still an employee of the company, and your contract of employment is still valid.

You do not build up annual leave during lay-off, but you can use any annual leave you earned before being laid off.

If you can't make it to work due to severe weather

Your employer does not have to pay you if you miss work because of extreme weather. You may be able to take annual leave, but this needs to be agreed with your employer.

Some employers offer flexible arrangements, like working from home or making up the lost hours. These options are at your employer's discretion.

The Workplace Relations Commission have more information about absence from work during extreme weather events.

From 1 February 2025, it will be illegal to own an XL Bully dog unless you have a Certificate of Exemption.

So, if you already own an XL Bully, you must get a Certificate of Exemption before 1 February 2025. The certificate means you can keep your XL Bully at a particular location until the end of their natural life.

The rules for this ban are set out in the Control of Dogs (XL Bully) Regulations 2024.

If you are an XL Bully dog owner with questions about these regulations you can contact DogControl@drdcd.gov.ie.

The Department of Rural and Community Development has a useful FAQ document (pdf) on the new XL Bully dog regulations.

How do I know if my dog is an XL Bully?

XL Bully dogs are a variant of the American Bully breed. They are usually bigger in height and body shape than other American Bully breed types.

The Department of Rural and Community Development has published a physical confirmation standard (pdf), which you can use to check if your dog meets the physical characteristics of an XL Bully dog.

It is your responsibility as the owner to determine if your dog is covered by the ban.

How do I get a Certificate of Exemption for my XL Bully dog?

If you own an XL Bully, you need to get a Certificate of Exemption before 1 February 2025. To get a Certificate of Exemption, your XL Bully must be:

You can apply for a certificate before 31 January 2025 by completing and submitting a form to your local authority. You get the application form from your local authority. It is free to get a Certificate of Exemption.

Lucan Men's Shed are seeking a Premises

Lucan Men's Shed has been successfully operating for a number of years.

Unfortunately, we have lost our Shed premises and are currently meeting by kind permission in St Mary's Parish Centre on Tuesday mornings from 10.30am

We engage in numerous activities and visit places of interest. We are affiliated to The Irish Men's Shed Association (ISMA) and are one of over 450 Sheds in Ireland. The Shed provides an important resource for men to engage with each other and adheres to the maxim that men talk 'shoulder to shoulder' rather than 'face to face'.

Ideally, we are seeking a premises in Lucan Village or within the nearby surrounding area.

We would be delighted to engage with a commercial business, organisation or individual who might kindly wish to enable us to obtain a 'new home'.

The age profile of our members ranges from those in their 60's up to a member who has attained the age of 92. Although we have reached capacity, we prefer not to turn people away.

We are willing to carry out minor repairs or decorate if required. We can pay rent and hold public liability insurance.

If you have a suitable premises and are willing to allow it to be used as a Men's Shed. Please contact the undersigned.

Q: Who is my Neighbour?

A: All Mankind. Looking at the news it is heart-breaking to see the suffering that is being experienced by our neighbours in Gaza. Parents watching their children fading away from starvation or possibly young children deprived of parents.

People are now, during the six-week respite, going back to their homes only to find rubble. Try and put ourselves in their position, it's almost impossible to perceive.

Can we do anything to help our neighbour? If we are serious about helping there are some ways we can make a difference! Possible you are thinking of going on pilgrimage to Lourdes, maybe you could put it off until next year and donate the cost to one of the voluntary organisations who give their time (and sometimes their lives) to help – as much as they are allowed to. If you intend taking a few short breaks during the summer possibly you could leave one out and donate the cost to one of the many good organisations helping in Gaza.

Encourage your own children / grand children to donate some of their pocket money to help children living in such terrible conditions, they will probably be so happy to know their small donation can help other children.

Let us all remember the widow's mite. Giving can bring such happiness to the donor.

Maybe some day at the end of our life we might hear "Well done good and faithful servant".

Batten down the hatches!

That's the advice on going to press this week as Storm Éowyn is heading our way. Looks like we're in for a real battering. Stay safe everyone!

Lucan was in the news again last weekend, as word spread of the death of a man in a fire in the village. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends, who received the sad news.

After five and a half years, we have our footpath back, and what a good job it is – it looks like the whole stretch of footpath from this point to the village could do with upgrading.....

Maybe there'll be a few bob left over from all the other works!

Last week, we mentioned that the wall opposite Courtneys was no more!

Just wondering where the ghosts of these old lads go now!!!

The Millennium Candles!

Can you believe that it is just over 25 years since each household received the Millennium Candle – the idea was to light your candle on New Year's Eve 1999.

The following verse was enclosed with the candle:

*When time began to rant and rage
The measure of her flying feet
Made Ireland's heart begin to beat;
And Time bade all his candles flare
To light a measure here and there;*

W. B. Yeats "To Ireland in the coming times"

Stealing the headlines from Trump!

It certainly got us talking about something other than Trump, when we witnessed the chaos at Dáil Éireann on Wednesday last!

Right or wrong, you had to feel sorry for the Ceann Comhairle.....

Village Green Steps

Introduction

Under the supervision of the SDCC, contractors have been refurbishing the Village green in the Centre of Lucan for several weeks.

One of the features of this so-called enhancement works is the construction of a stair as part of the new layout design.

Some local people have commented adversely on the construction of a stair because of the safety implications for the public when in future use. The plan helpfully also includes the construction of a ramp that can be used in lieu of a stair.

Background

The stair will be used by the general public which will include the elderly, possibly the visually impaired, children pulling, pushing, reaching while playing. The physically impaired including all ages and capabilities.

Steps by their nature are inherently dangerous, their usage can result in many injuries ranging from minor to major such as broken legs or spinal injuries in the worst cases. Many patients are admitted to hospitals resulting from slips, trips and falls yearly.

Apart from the desirability of a stairs which is in question, the existing design is not as safe as it could be, because the "rise" and the "going" as presently envisaged is insufficient on grounds of safety. The SDCC has been informed of the preferred dimensions of the "rise" and the "going" in writing.

Action

If you have concern about the current design which includes a stair in this location or have any other concerns, you may want to contact the SDCC directly or the resident site engineer at email joekelly@sdublincoco.ie

SCHOOL NEWS

St. Joseph's College

Junior Camogie: Hard luck to our junior camogie team who were beaten in the Junior A Shield final last Wednesday by Maynooth Community College. Despite our girls having a bad start to the game they battled back heroically to get themselves back into the game and could well have pushed on and won the game in the end. Despite the end to the year it was a fantastic year for our junior camogie team and a great achievement to reach the final. Mr Quinn and Mr Kirwan would like to thank all the players for their hard work and commitment throughout the year.

Nursing careers talk: A big thank you to our past student Kris McNally who visited the school to talk to our 6th year students about a career in nursing. Kris gave a brilliant insight into the positives and challenges of following a career in nursing.

First and Second Year basketball: Well done to our first and second year basketball team who had a great win against Holy Faith, Rathcoole in their opening league game. They play again this Tuesday 21st January against Kishogue Community College. Best of luck to the team Liberties College Visit: Last Thursday a group of sixth years visited Liberties College for their open day. The students got a brilliant amount of information on the campus, facilities and the courses they have to offer. Thanks to the guidance department for organising the trip.

Mental Health Week: Last week in the school was Mental Health Week. The theme on Monday during Mental Health Week was to connect and the students had fun connecting at lunch time playing games and boardgames. The theme on Tuesday during Mental Health Week was to Keep Active so the students took out the Skipping Ropes and had fun Keeping Active during lunchtime. Learning a new skill is good for our mental health so today the students shared their skills of hair braiding, crocheting, learning Ukrainian, karate, batoning & guitar at lunchtime.

Under 17 soccer: Well done to our under 17 soccer team who had a great win against St. Setons in their league game on Monday.

Senior Concern Debaters: Well done to our Senior Debaters and our intrepid team of researchers. You did the school proud in your performance against a very strong team from Maynooth Community College. We await the adjudication and feedback with interest. We should have a result by early next week. Once again a big thank you and a shout out for all of Joey's teaching staff accommodating our debating students in their preparations and practice.

Parents Association Quiz Night: Quiz Night 28th February at 8pm in Kenny's pub, Lucan village. €10 per person with lots of great raffle prizes. Please come and support The Parents Association in their fundraiser for New Team Jerseys for all the school.

Lots of activities to enjoy. Bowls, scrabble, cards, drama and choir. Coffee break at 1pm. Organised trips in Ireland and abroad.

Coláiste Phádraig CBS

Soccer: Our u19 soccer team's campaign came to a disappointing end last Friday when they were beaten 6-2 by Marian College in the 1st rnd of the Leinster Senior Shield. Marian took a 3-0 lead before Lucan struck back with goals from James Keogh and Eoin Maher. The game was in the balance for 10mins or so as Lucan pressed hard for an equaliser. As Lucan committed players forward at every opportunity, Marian took advantage of the space in behind late on to score three further goals to win well in the end.

Our u17 team were beaten 2-0 by Ashbourne CS in the 3rd rnd of the Junior Leinster Cup on Wednesday. Ashbourne took a 1st half lead with a well taken free-kick from just outside the box. Lucan pressed hard for an equaliser and created some good opportunities, especially in an excellent 2nd half display. However, Ashbourne scored a penalty in the last minute to seal the win. Our u15 team were knocked out of the Leinster Minor Shield last week after a narrow 1-0 defeat to Templeogue College in their 2nd rnd encounter. It was a very tight game, with very little between the teams, and Lucan were unlucky a number of times in front of goal, with some last-ditch defending and some slightly fortunate blocks denying them what would have been a deserved equaliser.

Football: Our 1st yr football team were beaten by Clonkeen College in the Dublin League Plate semi-final last Thursday. The team made a great start and Rian Burke scored the opening goal after 10mins. Clonkeen struggled to deal with Austin Radford's powerful, direct running in the early stages and he knocked over three excellent points in the 1st half. Clonkeen eventually got a foothold in the game and the teams were level at 1-05 apiece at half time.

The game slipped away from Lucan a little at the start of the 2nd half as Clonkeen took advantage of a strengthening wind to score a further 1-05 without reply. Ruairí Dowling gave the team hope with a superb goal from distance and Daniel Kavanagh added a well-taken point, but Clonkeen held on to win 2-11 to 2-06.

Hard luck also to our 2nd yr team who suffered an agonising extra-time defeat to Coláiste Chiaráin, Leixlip in the Dublin League "C" semi-final last Wednesday. Aaron Farrell, Caolin Reilly, Rían Murphy (2) scored the goals but it wasn't enough on the day as Coláiste Chiaráin eventually took control of the game in extra-time to win by 4 points (4-19 to 4-15).

Recycling: Coláiste Phádraig has introduced a special orange bin for recycling Re-turn bottles and cans in the school. The company behind the scheme, trading as Re-Turn, provided Ms Casey with the bin for students to deposit their empties. It has been placed at the student school entrance for returning any unwanted plastic bottles and cans.

By introducing deposit return here in our school, we will help reduce litter and waste as well as raising awareness about how important it is to help protect the environment. The money raised through this scheme will be donated to a charity at the end of the school year.

Re-Turn have also set up a 'Communities Map' to highlight the different initiatives taking place around the country which Ms Casey has signed up to. This may help increase the volumes by highlighting our fundraiser in our area for people to support. Re-Turn have had a lot of queries from people asking how to donate their containers rather than bringing them to a machine or putting them in the bin. By directing people to the Map, they hope that they will be able to find a fundraiser nearby to support.

They also have a lot of companies who are interested in supporting local initiatives, so again they can be directed to the map to find an initiative to support. The information on the Map is the Eircode Ms Casey provided, and no other contact details are visible. A huge thank you to all the staff and students who have deposited their bottles and cans to date. It is very much appreciated cake filled with jam and cream. With a focus on mastering basic baking techniques such as the whisking method and skilfully lining their baking tins, the students used electric mixers, ensuring the cake was light and fluffy. After baking, they skilfully spread a layer of sweet jam and whipped cream, and assembled the cake. The experience not only taught them important culinary skills, but also gave them a sense of accomplishment as they enjoyed the delicious fruits of their hard work!

Lucan Community College

Congratulations: A warm congratulations from Lucan CC to 'Team Power of One' who rowed 5000km across the Atlantic Ocean from San Sebastian de La Gomera to Antigua, not only did they complete the race, but they managed to come in third place. Team Math's is a table quiz for teams of 4 students from Leaving Certificate years with questions based on the Leaving Certificate higher level course. Ordinarily, regional rounds are held nationwide by local branches under common rules and questions with teams qualifying for the National final. Best of luck everyone.

Annual Celtic Lecture: "The Material World of St. Brigid"

Kildare Education Centre Friary Rd, Kildare town, Co. Kildare.

Exploring what light archaeological evidence can shed on people, the economy and life in Brigid's period. Accounts of St. Brigid in the lives written in the 7th century and later centuries portray not only a remarkable, holy woman, but one who seems grounded in the real world, taking part in household chores.

St Brigid's Prayer

You were a woman of peace.
You brought harmony where there was conflict.

You brought light into the darkness.
You brought hope to the downcast.
May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious, and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts and in our world.

Inspire us to act justly and to reverence all God has made.

Brigid you were a voice for the wounded and the weary.

Strengthen what is weak within us. Calm us into a quietness that heals and listens. May we grow each day into greater wholeness in mind, body and spirit. Amen.

On Planning.....

A proposal to erect a four-storey building with 20 apartments on a corner site within 50 meters of the busiest controlled road junction in the whole of Lucan is back in the limelight, in spite of a planning refusal four years ago. I am quoting from the planning inspectors 37 page Report.

Planning permission as refused and four reasons were given: It is contrary to local planning policy; it is contrary to national planning policy; it breaks section 3 of the Building Guidelines; the proposed building “would be visually obtrusive and would adversely impact on the visual and residential amenity of adjacent properties” and result in the intensification of traffic onto a heavily-trafficked regional road.

I would add that there was a heavy volume of objections and would note that my own submission was rejected by the Planning Authority as ‘invalid’.

The development is in direct contravention of the zoning objective ‘to protect and improve residential amenities’. It poses an immediate and permanent danger to the hundreds of school children who cross the very busy road within a short distance of the corner. In addition to all of the objections noted above I would add a few more. The proposed four storey building is completely out of character with the existing streetscape and devalues properties in its vicinity. It towers over and overlooks the girls-schools’ playing areas with dangerous implications.

Not a single voice has been raised in defence of this official vandalism. Not a single four-storey building has been erected in Lucan during the fifty years I have lived here. We have fought many campaigns in that time to protect our village and to preserve the beauty of the Liffey Valley.

It is a real pity that residents are threatened with a desecration of the neighbourhood which they have invested so much in. They deserve our support.

Hugh Mulrooney.

Works announced before Christmas to insert cabling ducting commenced this week and will necessitate some unavoidable traffic and pedestrian disruptions after 7pm for a period of four weeks, concentrated initially near the AIB and continuing northwards.

Works Near Schools:

Works at the lay-by near St Joseph's College continue and, as mentioned previously, this is part of the canal greenway project school cycle spur, which will see the area turn into a drop-off. At the same time a pedestrian crossing is being put in at the steps leading towards St Mary's BNS and a new layout is being installed at the junction from Esker Lawns/Lucan Heights hill at Lucan Road.

Have you ever noticed,

Those people on the wing?
The ones that always pass you by,
And never say a thing.
And even though you know them,
They hurry past in haste,
No quick hello or friendly smile –
They have not time to waste.
For those poor people on the wing,
who never stop to say a thing,,
Their minds are full of this and that;
There isn't time to stop and chat.
Until, someday when they're not well,
Will stop you with a tale to tell,
Of all the aches and pains they've got –
And of, course, you too will trot.

Membership Renewal

We're kicking off the 2025 membership renewal season here at Lucan Sarsfields GAA Club! Membership runs from January 1st to December 31st, so let's get everyone set up for another great year.

Important reminders:

- All adult players, managers, mentors, and committee members need to be full members to stay registered with the GAA, Camogie Association, or LGFA.
- Youth players must have a current membership too, so they're covered by the injury fund to train and play.
- All players need to be registered on Foireann by March 31st to stay eligible!

For families with both male and female players, you might notice a slight delay in the Foireann confirmation email—don't worry, that's normal!

St. Mary's Camera Soirée

Last week at the Soiree we continued to see what was possible using Google photos and at our gathering this Friday we looked at how to restore and digitise old photographs. Next Friday we take down our exhibition in Lucan Library. So, this is your last chance to see it. After that, as the weather hopefully improves, we resume taking photographs.

Our photographs this week have an emphasis on nature. Joe captured an interesting cloud formation which he described as “Swan clouds St. Edmundsbury” – not a meteorological description, I think, but apt.

Anna caught a lovely sunrise over Lucan.

Turing to our feathered friends Conor sent in a photo of a female Merganser duck on Malahide estuary. According to Wikipedia these birds are very scarce in Ireland.

The most spectacular photo of the week comes from one of our members who is in Australia at the moment. He sent us a photo of two Rainbow Lorikeets. The Lorikeet is a species of parrot and the birds often fly in pairs! They are native to eastern Australia, mate for life and can live to be 30 years old. Despite their beauty they have been classified as pests in parts of Australia and in New Zealand.

Until next week stay safe!
